v.	: CIVIL COURT – FAMILY DIVISION :
SARA A. PICKETT, Defendant	: : NO. 2018-20204

PETITION FOR SPECIAL RELIEF: MOTHER'S MOTION TO TRANSFER MATTER TO YORK COUNTY

AND NOW, Mother, Sara A. Pickett, by and through her below-signed counsel, requests as Special Relief that the Court transfer the instant matter to the York County Court of Common Pleas in York, Pennsylvania, and avers in support thereof as follows:

1. Mother resides in York County, Pennsylvania at an address which Mother requests be kept confidential from Father due to ongoing and historical conflict between the parents.
2. On August 4, 2021, Father, Kristoffer Hexter, was sentenced to 54 months to ten years within the State Correctional Institution system on Lebanon County criminal docket 654 of 2020, a certified copy of which was provided to the Court in the July 14, 2021 hearing in this matter.
3. Since Father's incarceration, the minor children reside full time with Mother in York County.
4. The children no longer have significant contacts with Lebanon County and will not for far longer than the six-month rule presumption in Pa. R.C.P. 1915.2(a).
5. A custody conciliation is scheduled for August 24, 2021 before Patrick Reb, Esq.

6. Paternal Grandparent, Bruce Hexter, filed an intervention petition with the Court on August 2, 2021.
7. Preliminary objections are pending concerning said intervention petition.
8. On July 14, 2021, Father filed a contempt petition against Mother.
9. Preliminary objections are pending concerning said petition.
10. On July 24, 2021, Mother filed a contempt petition against Father.
11. That petition is pending a scheduling order.
12. Without significant contacts, Mother, who does not possess a Pennsylvania driver's license or own or operate a motor vehicle, is prejudiced by having to travel two hours round trip to a county where she does not reside, and has not resided for the last year, for custody proceedings involving children who do not live in Lebanon County.
13. Under Rule 1915.2(a)(2), Father will no longer have minimum contacts with Lebanon County, and has been advised by the Court that this case is more properly suited in York County, where Mother resides.
14. Once a county loses "significant connections" with the parties, the court should not continue to oversee a custody matter. J.K. v. W.L.K., 2014 Pa. Super. 231, 102 Pa.3d 511, 516 (Pa. Super. 2014).
15. A judicial district can no longer be maintained as the venue for custody actions when none of the parties or the minor children reside in the county. Id. at 516; citing, 23 Pa. C.S. § 5422; citing, 23 Pa. C.S. 5421.

16. Knowing that Father and the minor children no longer have significant contacts with Lebanon County and the children reside full-time in York County, there is no reasonable cause for the court to continue to exercise ongoing jurisdiction. Id. at 516-17.
17. As Mother resides in York County, and the children are now exclusively residents of York County, York County is the exclusive appropriate and convenient venue for any further proceedings in this matter.
18. Mother requests that the August 24, 2021 custody conciliation be cancelled or continued pending resolution of this Petition for Special Relief.
19. If the Custody conciliation is permitted to proceed on August 24, Mother requests that any exceptions be addressed by the York County Court of Common Pleas.
20. An incarcerated parent has the full rights to amend a custody order to accommodate the circumstances of the incarcerated parent's confinement.
21. Any notice implicating an incarcerated party's participation in any custody matter must contain certain notices about that party's options to meaningfully participate in the hearing. Id. at 1161-62.

WHEREFORE, Mother respectfully requests that this Honorable Court transfer venue for this action to York County at the first available opportunity, and direct that any further proceedings be conducted by the York County Court of Common Pleas as expeditiously as possible and provide any other relief as may be just.

Respectfully Submitted,

MEMORANDUM OF LAW IN SUPPORT OF PRELIMINARY OBJECTIONS

The minor children have no further substantial contacts with Lebanon County. Mother lives in York County. Father's domicile is with the Department of Corrections for the next 54 months or more. Once a county loses "significant connections" with the parties, the court should not continue to oversee a custody matter. J.K. v. W.L.K., 2014 Pa. Super. 231, 102 Pa.3d 511, 516 (Pa. Super. 2014). The Court should transfer the matter to York County.
